COURT OF RECORD

Court Stands for Compassion Bank Reprimanded for Insensitivity Towards Employee's Disabled Son

Sheikh Rayees • January 9, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a compelling judgment, the Bombay High Court strongly criticized Indian Overseas Bank (IOB) for its lack of empathy in handling the case of an employee who sought to remain in Mumbai to care for her visually impaired child. The Court imposed a INR25,000 penalty on the bank, calling its approach devoid of human sensitivity and setting aside the transfer order that would have uprooted the employee. The employee, a...
