COURT OF RECORD

Court Stresses Fair Play Over Faith in Mandsaur Slaughterhouse Dispute

Sheikh Rayees • December 23, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

A man's bid to set up a slaughterhouse in Mandsaur has sparked debate over the intersection of law, religion, and urban governance, culminating in a decisive ruling from the Madhya Pradesh High Court's Indore Bench. The Court firmly criticized Mandsaur's municipal council for rejecting a No Objection Certificate (NOC) by labeling the city as a "religious area." Justice Pranay Verma dismantled this reasoning, stating, "The entire city cannot be considered..."
