COURT OF RECORD

Court Upholds Minority Institutions' Autonomy

No RTE Quota Admissions Allowed

Sheikh Rayees • August 18, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Aurangabad bench of the Bombay High Court has reaffirmed the autonomy of minority educational institutions by barring them from admitting students under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009 (RTE Act) quota, even on a voluntary basis. The case involved two minority-run English-medium schools in Ahmednagar— Izaak English Medium School and Anand Medical and Education Foundation—which challenged a...
