Court Upholds Probe Into Alleged Pandemic Profiteering of Oxygen Concentrators

Sheikh Rayees • November 22, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

Amid accusations of exploiting a desperate health crisis, the Delhi High Court has declined to halt criminal proceedings against Matrix Cellular, a company accused of hoarding and selling defective oxygen concentrators at exorbitant prices during the COVID-19 second wave. The court highlighted the severity of the allegations and emphasized the need for a thorough investigation. Unchecked Exploitation in Crisis The Court, led by Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma, underscored the...
