Chhattisgarh High Court Puts a Full Stop to Phones and Gadgets

Sheikh Rayees • June 19, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

No phones. No gadgets. Not even switched off. That's the blunt new rule laid down by the Chhattisgarh High Court in a directive that leaves little room for negotiation. On June 18, the Court made it crystal clear: if you're stepping into a courtroom as a litigant, your mobile or electronic device stays out. And for anyone thinking of sneaking in a recording? Don't. The Court's notice explicitly warns against...
