Delhi HC Fines Lawyer INR50,000 for Skipping Client's Signature

Sheikh Rayees • June 6, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a stern reminder that shortcuts don't fly in court, the Delhi High Court has come down heavily on an advocate who decided to march into litigation without even bothering to get his client's signature. A petition demanding removal of an allegedly illegal construction in the city was tossed out after it emerged that it bore only the signature of advocate Farhad Alam, and not the litigant. Justice Mini Pushkarna...
