Delhi High Court Grants Bail in Rape Case

Sheikh Rayees • February 11, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Delhi High Court has emphasized the importance of distinguishing consensual relationships from allegations of sexual misconduct when romantic dynamics sour in the workplace. Granting bail to a man accused of multiple offenses, including rape and criminal intimidation, the Court highlighted the complexities often present in such cases. The accused and the complainant, both workplace colleagues, had been in a consensual romantic and physical relationship with...
