Kerala HC Rips into NHAI After NH-66 Collapse

Sheikh Rayees • May 24, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a courtroom heavy with frustration and disbelief, the Kerala High Court on Friday delivered a scathing rebuke to the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) after freshly laid stretches of National Highway-66—meant to be a showcase of modern infrastructure—buckled and crumbled under just a week of rain. The collapse, reported from multiple districts including Thrissur, Malappuram, and Kannur, turned public concern into public outrage, prompting Justice Devan...
