Illegal Sand Mining Plagues Tamil Nadu's Wilds

Sheikh Rayees • January 11, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Illegal sand mining near Tamil Nadu's reserve forests has left a trail of ecological destruction, prompting the establishment of a Special Investigation Team (SIT) by the High Court. The team, led by two senior IPS officers, will delve into the years-long violations in Coimbatore district, uncovering a larger web of conspiracies threatening the delicate balance of wildlife habitats. A specially constituted bench emphasized the severity of the situation, citing vivid...
