Delhi Court Mandates Police Investigation into Controversial Tweets Targeting Hindu Beliefs

Sheikh Rayees • January 28, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A Delhi court has directed law enforcement to launch an investigation into tweets posted by journalist Rana Ayyub, alleging that her remarks offended religious sentiments and promoted communal discord. Chief Judicial Magistrate Himanshu Raman Singh of the Saket Court instructed the police to register a First Information Report (FIR) based on a complaint from Amita Sachdeva, who accused Ayyub of mocking Hindu deities and freedom fighter Vinayak Damodar...
