Delhi Court Seeks Interpol Notice Against Contempt Accused

Editorial Team • September 19, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has directed India's federal investigative agency to seek an Interpol Red Notice against a man accused of threatening and abusing judges. The order followed unsuccessful attempts to secure his physical appearance through non-bailable warrants and a domestic lookout notice. Authorities informed the court that he had travelled abroad and may have participated in online proceedings from California. The court also directed Indian...
