Delhi Court Weighs Independent Probe Into Bar Council Assault

Editorial Team • September 19, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has reserved its decision on whether lawyers may directly seek an independent investigation into an alleged assault at the Bar Council of India. The petitioners seek registration of a criminal case, preservation of surveillance footage and investigation by the Central Bureau of Investigation or another independent agency. They argue that political and institutional connections create concern about the neutrality of the Delhi Police. The court's immediate...
