Delhi Courts to Fall Silent

Lawyers Announce Two-Day Strike Over Police Deposition Order

Sheikh Rayees • August 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Delhi's courtrooms are set to go quiet on August 22 and 23 as the Coordination Committee of All District Bar Associations has called for a complete boycott of proceedings—both physical and virtual. At the heart of the standoff lies a controversial notification issued by Lieutenant Governor VK Saxena on August 13. The directive allows police officials to depose from inside their own stations, with their evidence recorded virtually. Lawyers across...
