COURT OF RECORD

Delhi HC Slams Door on Mandatory Service Charges, Calls Them a “Tax Mirage”

Sheikh Rayees • March 29, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a judgment that strikes a blow against sneaky billing tactics, the Delhi High Court has made it crystal clear: slapping a "service charge" onto your food bill is not just annoying—it's legally out of line. The Court minced no words in calling out restaurants for misleading customers into thinking that these charges are official government levies. Why? Because the term “service charge” carries an air of authority it simply...
