Delhi High Court Asks Centre to Address AAP's Push for Kejriwal's New Delhi Housing

Sheikh Rayees • October 26, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has asked the Union Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs to respond to a petition from the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) requesting a centrally located residence for Arvind Kejriwal, AAP's national convenor. The petition, anchored on a Ministry memorandum from 2014, contends that heads of national parties should be eligible for a residence if they lack alternative government-provided accommodations. In court, AAP's representative argued that Kejriwal...
