Delhi High Court Clears Candidate for Police Job Despite Tattoo Removal Scar

Sheikh Rayees • August 12, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Delhi High Court recently declared that a faint scar left by a tattoo removal process should not disqualify a candidate from joining the Delhi Police. This decision came in favor of Deepak Yadav, who had initially been deemed unfit for the constable post due to a faded tattoo on his forearm. A Bench consisting of Justices Suresh Kumar Kait and Girish Kathpalia upheld a previous...
