Delhi High Court Confirms Bail for Basement Owners in Tragic UPSC Aspirants' Death Case

Sheikh Rayees • January 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant development, the Delhi High Court granted regular bail to four individuals charged with criminal negligence after three UPSC aspirants lost their lives in a flooded basement-turned-library during last year's monsoon. The accused, Parvinder Singh, Sarabjit Singh, Tajinder Singh Ajmani, and Harvinder Singh, were co-owners of the basement housing the Rau's IAS Study Circle in Rajinder Nagar. Initially released on interim bail, their regular bail was...
