Delhi High Court Defends Liberty, Criticizes Prolonged Incarceration in Money Laundering Cases

Sheikh Rayees • October 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Delhi High Court underscored that Section 45 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) should not serve as a perpetual bar to bail, emphasizing that an accused's right to freedom must be safeguarded, especially in cases involving long, drawn-out trials. Justice Manoj Kumar Ohri, addressing the complexities of a high-profile money laundering case involving several accused and extensive evidence, noted that with the...
