Delhi High Court Denies ISIS Recruiter's Plea for Concurrent Sentences

Sheikh Rayees • June 8, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has dismissed a plea by Mohsin Ibrahim Sayyed, a convicted ISIS member, to have his sentences from two separate cases run concurrently. Sayyed, who had been found guilty under the Unlawful Activities Prevention Act (UAPA) for recruiting individuals for ISIS and planning terrorist attacks during the Ardh Kumbh Mela, sought a reduction in his combined sentence duration. Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma emphasized the severity of Sayyed's...
