Delhi High Court Fines Woman INR5,000 for 'Baseless' Bias Claim Against Judge

Sheikh Rayees • February 2, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a firm stance against frivolous litigation, the Delhi High Court imposed a INR5,000 penalty on a woman who sought to transfer a child custody case by alleging judicial bias. The court dismissed her claim as "scandalous" and aimed at undermining judicial authority. Justice Dinesh Kumar Sharma, rejecting the petition, emphasized that the mother could have challenged any adverse custody order through proper legal channels instead of making unsubstantiated accusations....
