COURT OF RECORD

Delhi High Court Grants Widow INR10 Lakh for Husband's Electrocution Tragedy, Despite No Negligence

Sheikh Rayees • September 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a heartbreaking case, the Delhi High Court has directed electricity distributor BSES to provide INR10 lakhs in compensation to the widow of a man who tragically lost his life after being electrocuted in a marketplace in 2017. The man, a sub-inspector with the Delhi Police, was sheltering from the rain when he came into contact with an iron gate, unknowingly touching an exposed live wire. Though the court ruled...
