Delhi High Court Hails New Law Mandating Technology in Criminal Procedures

Sheikh Rayees • July 11, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant judicial endorsement, the Delhi High Court has lauded the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) for its groundbreaking provisions mandating the use of technology in criminal procedures. Justice Amit Mahajan highlighted the law's requirement for videography and photography during search and seizure operations, aiming to bolster transparency and accountability in investigations. "The BNSS marks a pivotal shift towards integrating technology into our criminal...
