Delhi High Court Halts Arvind Kejriwal's Bail Amid Liquor Policy Controversy

Sheikh Rayees • June 22, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has temporarily halted the bail granted to Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal by the Rouse Avenue Court. This decision follows a plea from the Directorate of Enforcement (ED), which contested the late-night bail order from June 20, 2024, claiming it was issued without giving them a fair chance to present their objections. The case revolves around allegations of money laundering tied to the Delhi Excise liquor...
