Delhi High Court Prescribes Pro Bono Work as Remedy for Lawyer's Courtroom Outburst

Sheikh Rayees • March 15, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In an unusual resolution, the Delhi High Court mandated a lawyer to provide free legal services as a condition for closing a contempt of court case. The advocate, accused of aggressive conduct during a trial, faced the unusual directive following his apology. The incident unfolded in a POCSO (Protection of Children from Sexual Offences) trial on November 23, 2024, at Saket Court. The lawyer, representing the accused, disrupted the proceedings...
