Delhi High Court Pushes for Online Registration Option for Muslim Marriages

Sheikh Rayees • November 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant directive, the Delhi High Court has urged the state government to establish an online registration option for Muslim marriages on its official portal, addressing a gap in the current system. The Delhi government's platform currently allows marriage registrations solely under the Hindu Marriage Act or the Special Marriage Act (SMA), leaving no provision for couples who marry under Muslim law. This issue surfaced in a recent case...
