Delhi High Court Shields Businessman in Multimillion-Dollar Ozempic Fraud Case

Sheikh Rayees • August 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a case that has rattled both the pharmaceutical trade and cross-border regulators, the Delhi High Court has stepped in to grant interim protection from arrest to businessman Vicky Ramancha—accused of orchestrating an $18.8 million scam involving counterfeit doses of the diabetes drug Ozempic. Justice Neena Bansal Krishna, presiding over the matter, ordered that no coercive action be taken against Ramancha until the next hearing scheduled for September 22. In...
