Delhi High Court Slams Bail-Holders for Stalling Riots Trial, Says Delays Hurt Those Still Behind Bars

Sheikh Rayees • September 3, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a pointed rebuke, the Delhi High Court has said that the real reason behind delays in the Delhi riots conspiracy trial lies not with the police or the trial court but with those accused who are already out on bail. According to the Bench, their repeated attempts to postpone charge arguments are dragging the case and punishing the ones still lodged in prison.
