Delhi High Court Slams Bureaucratic Delays, Demands Action on Hybrid Court Tech

Sheikh Rayees • October 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has taken a firm stance against the Delhi government's failure to expedite the installation of technology crucial for hybrid hearings across the city's district courts. In a case stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic, senior advocates petitioned for virtual hearing options to protect vulnerable individuals. However, despite repeated court orders, progress has stalled. A bench led by Chief Justice Manmohan and Justice Tushar Rao Gedela expressed...
