Delhi High Court Stresses Immediate Disclosure of Arrest Grounds

No Room for Delay

Sheikh Rayees • February 8, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court has reinforced the legal obligation that individuals arrested without a warrant must be informed of the grounds for their arrest at the exact moment they are taken into custody. This ruling, rooted in Section 50 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), asserts that law enforcement officers must provide this information simultaneously with the issuance of an arrest memo. Highlighting the significance of this requirement, the...
