Delhi High Court to Centre You Don't Deny Soldiers Their Due

Sheikh Rayees • July 5, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a blistering takedown of bureaucracy over justice, the Delhi High Court has junked nearly 300 petitions filed by the Ministry of Defence that sought to block disability pensions for military personnel. The Court wasn't having it. These petitions challenged earlier rulings by the Armed Forces Tribunal, which had sided with ex-servicemen — saying they were, in fact, entitled to disability pensions. But instead of honoring those decisions, the Ministry...
