Delhi High Court to Debate Early Access to CAG Reports Ahead of Elections

Sheikh Rayees • January 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Delhi High Court is poised to decide whether audit reports by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India (CAG) can be disclosed to the public before being officially presented in the Legislative Assembly—a question stirring debate ahead of upcoming elections in the capital. The matter stems from a public interest litigation (PIL) urging the Central government, Delhi's Lieutenant Governor, and the CAG to make the audit findings accessible online....
