Delhi High Court Welcomes Two New Judges, Strength Rises to 41

Sheikh Rayees • February 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Judicial officers Renu Bhatnagar and Rajneesh Kumar Gupta have officially joined the Delhi High Court as judges, marking a step toward bolstering the court's workforce. Their appointment brings the number of sitting judges to 41, though the court still operates below its sanctioned strength of 60. The Supreme Court Collegium had endorsed their elevation on February 5, with final approval from the central government coming through on February 19. Their...
