Delhi's Long-Dormant Telecom Clash Roars Back to Life After 17 Years

Sheikh Rayees • November 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Seventeen years after an arbitral tribunal ordered MTNL to cut a hefty cheque to Motorola, the old CDMA-era battle has been jolted awake. The Delhi High Court has wiped the dust off the file and sent the quarrel back for a fresh judicial look—an unexpected revival for a case that began when pagers still had a loyal fan base.
