Court Slams Punjab's Refusal to Hire Injured Soldier's Son

Sheikh Rayees • February 10, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a scathing rebuke, the Punjab and Haryana High Court has condemned the denial of a government job to the son of a soldier who sustained injuries in an anti-terror operation in Jammu and Kashmir, calling the decision unjust and irrational. The court ruled that under Punjab's 1999 policy for war heroes and battle casualties, the soldier's son was entitled to the appointment he was denied. The soldier, Surinder Pal,...
