SUPREME COURT

Dismissed But Not Denied

Supreme Court Says UCO Bank Must Pay Pension to Ex-Employee With 10 Years of Service

Sheikh Rayees • April 5, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Even misconduct can't wipe out a decade of service—that was the message the Supreme Court sent loud and clear as it shut down UCO Bank's attempt to deny pension to a former employee it had dismissed years ago. The top court stood firm behind an earlier decision by the Punjab and Haryana High Court, which had ordered the bank to grant superannuation benefits to the employee—Vijay Kumar Handa—who had been...
