COURT OF RECORD

ECI Seeks Release of Thrissur EVMs, Citing No Role in Election Challenge Against Suresh Gopi

Sheikh Rayees • November 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Election Commission of India (ECI) has petitioned the Kerala High Court to release Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) used during the 2024 General Elections in Thrissur, asserting they are unnecessary for resolving the ongoing legal challenge to Union Minister Suresh Gopi's electoral victory. In its affidavit, the ECI emphasized that the EVMs were crucial for upcoming elections across the country and noted that their retention in custody served no purpose...
