Extortion Without Exchange

Supreme Court Clarifies No Need for Property Transfer Under Section 387 IPC

Sheikh Rayees • June 13, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a judgment that redefines the threshold of extortion under Indian law, the Supreme Court has declared that putting someone in fear of death or grievous injury is enough to trigger Section 387 of the Indian Penal Code — even if no money or property is ultimately handed over. The ruling came as the apex court overturned a decision of the Allahabad High Court, which had quashed a criminal summons...
