Supreme Court Slams UP Over Shadowy Land Deals

Sheikh Rayees • May 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a scorching indictment of how public land is parceled out in Uttar Pradesh, the Supreme Court has dismantled the quiet backdoor dealings of the Uttar Pradesh State Industrial Development Corporation (UPSIDC), calling its allocation practices “a betrayal of public trust.” The trigger? A massive 125-acre industrial land deal handed out in just two months—no bidding, no scrutiny, no visible gain for the public. Though the Court upheld UPSIDC’s decision...
