Fee Fight Backfires

Kerala High Court Fines Lawyers for Freezing Client's Case

Sheikh Rayees • April 11, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Kerala High Court has come down heavily on two advocates who attempted to halt court proceedings over an alleged non-payment of legal fees, warning that clients cannot be cornered into settling disputes under pressure. The Court imposed INR50,000 in costs, calling the conduct inconsistent with the dignity expected of the legal profession.
