Fourteen Fresh Faces Tipped for Bombay High Court Bench by Supreme Court Collegium

Sheikh Rayees • August 20, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The country's top judicial body has cleared the way for a significant addition to the Bombay High Court. On August 19, the Supreme Court collegium signed off on the elevation of 14 advocates, putting their names forward to take up judgeships in one of India's busiest courts. The decision came through two separate resolutions. The first list carried eight names: Siddheshwar Sundarrao Thombre Mehroz Ashraf Khan Pathan Ranjitsinha Raja Bhonsale...
