From Grief to Closure

J&K High Court Concludes Case on Recovered Body from Pakistan

Sheikh Rayees • July 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The tragic story of Harsh Nagotra, a young Indian man who drowned in the Chenab river, reached a solemn conclusion as his body was returned from Pakistan and handed over to his grieving family. This led the Jammu and Kashmir High Court to close a suo motu case that had been initiated to ensure the retrieval of Nagotra's body. The court was informed by the Deputy Solicitor General of India...
