Just 6% of High Court Judge Picks Tied to Judicial Families, Says Supreme Court

Sheikh Rayees • May 6, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a quiet push for transparency, the Supreme Court has pulled back the curtain on its recent judicial recommendations — revealing that bloodlines haven't been the dominant force behind appointments to India's High Courts. Out of the 221 candidates recommended for High Court judgeships over the last two and a half years, just 14 had family ties to sitting or former judges. That's 6.3% — a figure that punches a...
