Kerala HC Says Courts Must Weigh Reality, Not Receipts

Sheikh Rayees • July 10, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a case that blends the delicate strands of family trust and legal proof, the Kerala High Court has made it clear: a married woman's claim for return of gold ornaments should not be reduced to a cold demand for receipts and documentation. The emotional and informal realities of matrimonial life deserve a more human lens, the Court said. Sitting on the bench, Justices Devan Ramachandran and MB Snehalatha drew...
