COURT OF RECORD

Gujarat Judge and Cop Found in Contempt for Ignoring Supreme Court Order

Sheikh Rayees • August 8, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Supreme Court of India has convicted a Gujarat police inspector and a Surat Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate for contempt of court. The case involves the wrongful arrest and detention of an individual in defiance of a Supreme Court order granting anticipatory bail. On Wednesday, Justices BR Gavai and Sandeep Mehta directed that the accused, Police Inspector RY Raval and Magistrate Deepaben Sanjaykumar Thakar, appear before...
