High Court Denounces Lawyer's Fee-Based Argument Pressure

Sheikh Rayees • August 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent decision, the Madhya Pradesh High Court strongly criticized a lawyer who argued that dismissing his case would result in a loss of legal fees. On August 2, Justice Gurpal Singh Ahluwalia emphasized that the legal profession is not a commercial enterprise where advocates can pressure the court for favorable rulings to secure their fees from clients. The court made it clear that it is not concerned with...
