High Court Expresses Concern Over Lack of Educational Standards for Lawmakers

Sheikh Rayees • September 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Punjab and Haryana High Court highlighted a long-standing concern voiced by India's first President, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, regarding the absence of educational qualification requirements for individuals aspiring to become Members of Parliament (MPs) or Members of Legislative Assemblies (MLAs). The Court noted that despite the passage of nearly 75 years since Dr. Prasad expressed his regret, the issue remains unresolved. This observation came...
