High Court Grants Jailed Student Permission to Take LLM Exams

Sheikh Rayees • June 24, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Punjab and Haryana High Court decreed that a final year LLM student facing murder charges should be allowed to take his second-semester exams, emphasizing that preventing him from doing so would cause irreparable damage to his future. Justice Vikas Bahl underscored the potential harm to the student's career if he were barred from completing his studies. "Denying the petitioner the opportunity to sit for his...
