Patanjali Escapes INR62 Lakh Duty in Customs Tariff Close Call

Sheikh Rayees • July 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In an eleventh-hour twist, the Bombay High Court threw a lifeline to Patanjali Foods, saving them from a INR62 lakh customs duty hike. Justices KR Shriram and Jitendra Jain determined that the notification revising tariff rates was issued 25 minutes too late, after Patanjali had already filed their ex-bond bills of entry. The court's decision comes as a significant relief for Patanjali Foods, which had imported crude palm oil for...
