High Court Puts Brakes on Trial in Karti Chidambaram's Visa and Aircel-Maxis Cases

Sheikh Rayees • April 12, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant pause to proceedings that have shadowed him for years, Congress MP Karti Chidambaram has secured relief from the Delhi High Court, which ordered a lower court to hold off on hearing charges in two high-profile money laundering cases—one involving an alleged Chinese visa scam, the other tied to the controversial Aircel-Maxis deal. The High Court, stepping in just days before a scheduled April 15 hearing, said the...
