High Court Rebukes Punjab National Bank for “Inhumane” Treatment of Disabled Employee

Sheikh Rayees • July 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Calcutta High Court has ordered Punjab National Bank (PNB) to compensate a bank official with a disability to the tune of INR3 lakh, citing the bank’s “reprehensible” actions against him. The ruling mandates that all Public Sector Banks undergo sensitivity training regarding the treatment of persons with disabilities. In 2015, Anirban Pal, a PNB officer, was left with a 70% disability following a severe motor accident. Despite his disability,...
